

Send – a – Message Content Guidelines:

The following content will be accepted by our moderating staff:

- Inquiries regarding playing with others
- Requests for information about lessons and resources in a particular location (example: does anyone know of a good clarinet teacher in Phoenix, AZ?)
- Correspondence between players (example: great to see you last weekend. If you're interested in playing music next Friday, let me know.)
- Introductions between members

The following content will not be accepted by our moderating staff:

- Commercial ventures, such as events or services which require people to pay for them
- Advertising workshops that require fees of any kind
- Digital media, such as online publication subscription services
- Published media, such as printed subscription services
- Bulk communications to the entire member list
- Inappropriate content of any kind; including photos, phrases, or remarks
- Unwarranted advances that infringe on a person's personal life, outside the context of chamber music